Dear Friend:

We are excited about Phenomenal Pearls Educational and Charitable Foundation's (PPECF) and the 100 Black Men, Metropolitan Houston Chapter, Inc. 2017 fundraiser, Real Men Who Cook! Although this is our first year holding this event together, we are beyond ecstatic to host and raise funds to benefit community programming. Specifically, proceeds will benefit scholarships to deserving area high school graduates in 2018 and programs related to family strengthening, financial literacy, health, environmental sustainability, and global impact.

It is important that we educate our guests not only on the nutritional value of the meals they are eating, but also to remind all guests of the Hunger conditions facing the world. Our goal is to ensure good health and stronger vital communities for all. Additionally, we will also focus our event on efforts to help Hurricane Harvey victims.

Real Men Who Cook will feature local area men both amateurs and professional chefs along with food truck vendors who will prepare their favorite dishes, amuse bouche size, to hundreds of guests in hopes of receiving the grand prize at the end of the night. Dish categories include appetizers, entrees, side dishes, and desserts. The competition will take place on Sunday, November 12, 2017 at Buffalo Soldiers National Museum, 3816 Caroline Street, Houston, Texas 77004 from 2:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m.

There is no registration fee to be a cook. However, all cooks are responsible for purchasing their own food and supplies. Plates, napkins and eating utensils will be provided. Admission for the general public is $20 per adult, $10 for students and youth ages 12 to 18, $8 for children ages 2 to 12 and all children under 2 are free. We also have a special pricing package of $70 for 4 adult tickets. While each chef will receive free entrance to the event and free admission for one guest/helper, if you plan to bring any additional helpers, that guest must purchase an entrance ticket.

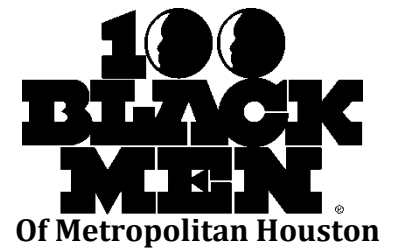

To register as a cook, please complete the enclosed registration form and return no later than November 3, 2017. If you have questions, or need additional information, please contact Lawanda Coffee at info@ppecf.org or Juan Wyms at juanpwym@gmail.com.

We are hoping for tremendous success in our first year of this fabulous event. We thank you in advance for your consideration and hope to see you for an extremely FUN fundraiser!

Sincerely,

Orjanel Lewis, Esq.
